INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT ON BREEDING, RACING AND WAGERING

The International Agreement makes an inventory of desirable practices and states general clauses which are common to most of the Horseracing Authorities. It represents an exhaustive compendium of ideal principles meant to help Horseracing Authorities to define their own requirements.

Changes made since the previous edition :

- ① Rewording of Article 3A and Appendix 1 to cover horses running in several countries without returning to their home base
- ① Article 5 : Addition of a new paragraph
- ① Article 6 : minor amendments to paragraphs 16, 17 and Appendix 4
- ① Amendments of Article 9 to make it less restrictive
- ① Article 14 : amendments in paragraphs III and IV.3, 7.
Appendix 9 : changes to the list of races of which names of winners are automatically protected.
- ① Article 15 : minor amendments to paragraph 1.2
- ① Addition of a detail to Article 16
- ① Deletion of Article 17
- ① Rewording of Article 18
- ① Deletion of Article 20
- ① Total update and rewording of Articles 22, 23 and 24 (deletion of former Article 25 which has been merged with Article 24)
- ① Amendments to Appendix 10 to better cope with practices in use in different jurisdictions
- ① Addition of a new Article 29 related to licensing criteria for trainers and riders
- ① Addition of Georgia, Kazakhstan, Mauritius, Moldavia, Puerto Rico and Ukraine on the list of International Code of Suffixes
